

VACATION SPOTS IN MOUNTAINS AND BY THE SEA

Summer Season In Full Swing At All Resorts

Cottages and Hotels Open Unusually Early and Attract Great Throngs to Mountains and Seashore

Canada Proving Popular

Social Gayety at Lenox and Other Fashionable Places Already Is Under Way

Memorial Day ushered in the season at the summer resorts and never before have the seashore and inland gathering places been so well patronized at this time of the year. Hotels that do not open ordinarily until after the middle of June are now in full operation, and within the next ten days practically all the big hotels along the Jersey coast will be running.

A brilliant season of private entertainments, semi-public affairs arranged for charity, and outdoor sports are being arranged and soon will be in full swing. Already tennis, golf and swimming have started and the yachting season is well under way.

Hundreds enjoyed the bathing at the seashore during the hot spell last week and the intense heat was the means of driving hundreds out of the city earlier than usual.

White Sulphur and Hot Springs are filling up with summer guests and most of the cottages at both places, as well as the hotels, are filled. Horseback riding, golf and tennis are the attractions.

Many members of society left the city last week for Newport, Lenox, Southampton and other fashionable resorts and the season at these places is taking on life and there is much social activity, especially in the Berkshires, where all the big estates are now occupied.

The White Mountain season will not begin for another three weeks, but many have gone up there on fishing trips or on automobile tours.

Canada is attracting tourists in large numbers and the popular resorts are filling up gradually. Among those at present in Banff, in the heart of the Canadian Pacific Rockies, from New York are Mr. and Mrs. Victor Seggerman, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Haynes, F. H. Hyde, H. R. Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. Spear.

Narragansett Pier May Revive Polo for Its Summer Sports

NARRAGANSETT PIER, R. I., June 7.—The Point Judith Country Club, where much of the outdoor life of Narragansett centers during the summer, opened for tennis matches Wednesday. It is probable that a series of tennis and golf tournaments will be announced later in the summer. Polo may be revived, although it is a trifle early to forecast a polo season at Narragansett.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison S. Morris, of Philadelphia, will spend the summer at Jamestown, R. I.

Willard P. Ward, of New York, has arrived at his cottage at Taver Hill, N. J.

Miss Caroline Hazard has returned to Peconic, N. Y., from Santa Barbara, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Fletcher, of Providence, are at Sagamore cottage for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lieber, of Bryn Mawr, Penn., have taken a cottage here for the summer.

Garden City Season Opens With a Rush To Entertain Veterans

GARDEN CITY, L. I., June 7.—With many representative people here from New York, Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Washington and other cities, this cathedral town, with its many diversified interests, has started off with its most successful season.

Arrivals from New York include Mr. and Mrs. Eugene D. Hawkins, Everett R. Currier, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Bloodgood, Keith F. McVaugh and C. V. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Cox, Mrs. F. G. Potter, Miss Adelaide Potter, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Powers, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Corbin, Mrs. Henry W. Parker, Miss Beatrice Parker, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Vaughan, Master Harold C. Vaughan, C. Roberts Cox, and others.

Plans are rapidly maturing for the memorial concert, which the members of Company C, 165th Infantry will give at the Garden City Hotel on Thursday evening, June 19.

White Sulphur Springs Cottages Are Opened by New Yorkers for Season

THE GREENBRIER, WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 7.—Many members of the summer colony are arriving this week to open their cottages for the season and the opening of the Old White Hotel on June 25 will bring a large number of guests here. On July 14 the West Virginia State Golf Association will hold its annual tournament.

James Cresson Parrish, of Southampton, arrived for a few weeks before going to his Southampton estate for the summer, accompanied by J. C. Parrish, Jr.

W. Barton French, of New York, was here on his private car early in the week with several men friends to play over the White Sulphur golf course.

Mrs. Marshall Orme Wilson has returned to New York, leaving Mr. Wilson here. Jonathan Ingersoll, of New York, is spending some time here in company of Mr. Wilson and is playing golf and riding daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scribner, of Morristown, N. J., are still here and have lately received a visit from Mr. and Mrs. George R. D. Schieffelin, of Morristown. Mrs. Schieffelin is their daughter.

Short Motor Trips Favorite Pastime of Hot Springs Visitors

HOT SPRINGS, Va., June 7.—Summer bookings at the Homestead are the largest in years, and already signs of activity are visible everywhere in the cottage colony.

Mrs. Arthur C. Cumcock drove with a small party on Thursday to Bath Alum and Mrs. Albin L. Swenson drove to Bath Alum Thursday, a favorite place for wild flower excursions. Mrs. Swenson took a party to Valley View Tuesday for luncheon.

Mrs. Reginald De Koven drove Thursday to the Cascades and on returning to the Homestead entertained a party at tea at the clubhouse.

Berkshire Homes Are Opened Earlier Than Usual This Season

LENOX, Mass., June 7.—This year more estates in the Berkshires were open in May than ever before, and since the first of June there has been a rush to the country. All of the larger places have been occupied or leased, and the hotels have done the largest business in their histories.

Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, of New York, is now motoring in Canada. She will return shortly to Elm Court for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Baker, of Washington, are at Holmwood, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie are at Shadow Brook. Mr. Carnegie will not go to Bar Harbor for August. Mr. and Mrs. Roswell Miller, who are passing the season at Millbrook, N. Y., will frequently motor to Lenox to visit Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carnegie.

Mrs. Joseph H. Choate arrived at Naumkeag in Stockbridge Monday. Her daughter, Miss Mabel Choate, will pass the season with her.

Mrs. Joseph S. Whistler has leased Plumstead to Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Rosworth, of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Appleton Wade and Mrs. William F. Garrison will pass the season at Manatuck Farm, Stockbridge.

Mrs. Daniel Paine Griswold, who has been abroad four years, has returned to New York and will open her Lenox country house.

Mrs. Edward W. Sparrow, of New York, has leased Home Farm, the estate of the late William A. Slater, Jr., of Washington.

Arriving at Curtis Hotel were Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hubbell, Mrs. Hubbell Rowland, Captain George A. Hubbell, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh M. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Smith, Mrs. Duncan Sterling, Clifford and Meredith Hemphill, of New York.

White Mountains Are Mecca for Motorists En Route to Seashore

WHITE MOUNTAINS, N. H., June 7.—Society people who spend the summer on the North Shore, at Newport and Bar Harbor and other Maine coast resorts, or at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, N. B., are planning to motor first through the Switzerland of America.

Mrs. Marshall Field, who has a house on the North Shore for the summer, always motors to Dixville Notch and gives tea parties at Polly's Place in Colebrook. Mrs. McK. Twombly also motors up from Newport every season to pay a visit to Mrs. Arthur Hubbell, motoring from there over to visit Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb at Schoharie Farms, Vt. Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., and her young son, who had a cottage last summer at the Profile House, may also go there for a brief stay this season.

It is expected that the annual North Jersey Coast tennis championship, which will be played on the courts of the Spring Lake Bathing and Tennis Club this year, will be the most notable held here. A. Clayton Clark, of Perth Amboy, is chairman of the managing committee.

The Bathing and Tennis Club will also stage its annual pool day events, but somewhat later in the season.

A number of the smaller houses are already open. The Shoreham and the Breakers will open June 21st.

The New Jersey Society of the Cincinnati will again make Spring Lake Beach the scene of its annual convention. Former President Taft, Henry P. Davison, and others of national prominence have been invited to address the society at its annual banquet July 4.

The New Jersey State Medical Society will meet here June 23.

Mrs. Henry A. Haines is already in her cottage in Tuttle Avenue and is engaged in the preparation of the season's activities on the part of the Hospital Alliance, of which she is president. The first meeting for the season will take place this month and it is planned to hold a series of affairs in support of the alliance's charitable work this summer. Allied with Mrs. Haines in the work of the organization are Mrs. James B. Clemens, Mrs. John A. Robinson, Mrs. James Moses and Miss Laura Moses of New York; Mrs. Charles S. Narragansett Pier

RHODE ISLAND

Many places on the New England Coast front the sea. But none look out on the Atlantic with a finer, broader view than Narragansett. The beach, more than a mile long, slopes gently to the ocean. The many hotels of the resort stand on tree-shaded sites, but are open to the ocean breezes.

A network of perfect motor roads lead out of Narragansett, through one of the most picturesque sections of New England. Off the rocky headlands of the shore the angles will find the best of deep sea fishing. At the Point Judith Country Club are all the recreations for a delightful summer vacation—golf, polo, tennis.

The one distinctive feature, above all, at Narragansett is the Clarendon Hotel. Here, after the morning on the beach, all Narragansett gathers for an hour of pleasant converse and refreshment. Here, in the late afternoon, meet the summer colony for tea and chat, and with the evening comes Narragansett society and nearly summer home owners to attend the brilliant entertainment.

Beaches of golden white sand—green meadows ringing in with flowers from spring to fall—Birds and water fowl darting to cover at unexpected turns in the road. There is no more delightful place to spend your vacation than historic Cape Cod.

And more than the setting in which you are to play the role of Idler, is your company of interesting Cape Cod people. The Cape Cod fisherman, no longer a sea-farer, is your guide, and like all people who live in the open, is a philosopher who will mingle your out-door life with tales of experience, myth, and mystery that you will live in an atmosphere of romance.
